DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 3, 2008 has been entered.

Drawings

The replacement sheets of drawings were received on December 26, 2007. These drawings are objected to for the reasons set forth below.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the treatment head, too machine, and means for shifting the couplings must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The treatment head and tool machine now claimed have not been adequately disclosed. Also the means for shifting the couplings relative to each other does not appear to be adequately shown or disclosed in the application.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Since the disclosure does not appear to show or describe structure corresponding to the means for shifting the couplings, the metes and bounds of the claim are not clear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 16-19, insofar as definite, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by either Saj('780) or Pieczulewski('488). Saj discloses an indexable mount having a first coupling having first and second elements 74, 76 displaceable relative to each other and having teeth that differ in number by more than one tooth, a second coupling having first and second elements 78, 80 engageable with the first and second elements of the first coupling, fixed relative to each other and having teeth differing in number by more than one tooth, and means 84 for shifting the coupling s relative to one another. Similarly, Pieczulewski discloses an indexable mount having a first coupling having first and second elements 34, 43 displaceable relative to each other and having teeth that differ in number by more than one tooth, a second coupling having first and second elements 62, 64 engageable with the first and second elements of the first coupling, fixed relative to each other and having teeth differing in number by more than one tooth, and means 48 for shifting the couplings relative to one another. The plate 14 of Saj and the plate 12 of Pieczulewski are readable as a treatment head of a tool machine insofar as defined by the claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 3, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the applied prior art does not disclose "the concept of obtaining high accuracy machining by adjusting the treatment head with as special indexing apparatus." There is no structure recited that would perform any machining operation. Since the structure of the coupling recited is met by the couplings in the prior art, they would appear to provide the same degree of accuracy.
